

Course 1: Introduction to Self Driving Cars

By the end of this course, you will ...

- Learn about the elements of driving: perception, prediction, decision making
- Understand how to design the software and hardware stack to do autonomous driving
- Understand common safety practices for autonomous driving

Course 1: Introduction to Self Driving Cars

By the end of this course, you will ...

- Learn the basics of vehicle modeling and control, and design controllers to do speed regulation, path following, etc.
- Use these concepts to help navigate a self driving car in CARLA